

Deal: RETS Tech Center Sold to Education Affiliates

Sector: Education Service

What T&T Accomplished:

- An all cash transaction
- Generation of multiple offers.
- Creation of a competitive environment yielding maximum shareholder value.
- Continued employment of family and key employees.
- Long-term facility lease of owner's building.

About RETS (RETS Tech Center)

As one of Ohio's leading post-secondary for-profit schools, located in Centerville, it recently added a RN medical program as well as an additional building and equipment to support its rapid growth.

About Education Affiliates

Education Affiliates is a subsidiary of JLL Partners Inc., a New York-based private equity firm, which has $2.5 billion in committed capital and investments in several education, health care and food companies. JLL Partners owns the Baltimore-based Marco Group renaming it in 2004 to Education Affiliates.

Situation

- After operating school for 25 years, the owner seeks retirement through sale of school.
- Following the sale, school owner desires securing a long-term facility lease; meanwhile, family member's desire continued employment.
- Original M&A advisor hired but failed to generate any interest.
- Trudeau & Trudeau engaged to sell school.

Solution

At Trudeau & Trudeau, we

- approached only qualified targeted strategic and financial buyers.
- maximized confidentiality by minimizing unnecessary exposure.
- consulted with accountants to solve complex tax issues.
- navigated the transaction through the DOE, ACCSCT, SCT, and AAMA.
- assisted legal teams from both sides in resolving issues.

Testimonial

"The professionals at Trudeau & Trudeau guided me throughout the acquisition from beginning to end. They helped our school find the right Buyer, negotiated a premium selling price, and managed the process to ensure that the deal closed."

—Mike LeMaster,
President of RETS Tech Center

"The bankers at Trudeau & Trudeau understand the Merger & Acquisition business and the nature of transactions. When representing their client, the communication back and forth was well facilitated and the process ran smoothly as a result."

—Duncan Anderson,
CEO of Education Affiliate
